Firstly, there is nothing in the F.I.R. to indicate as to whether those were the copies of the F.I.R. or were simply the case diaries which were found lying in the house on the table of the petitioner. Secondly, the F.I.R. does not indicate that any interpolation either of the deletion, addition or on account of erasing some part of it was made on any of the documents. It is true that might be the documents were found in the house of the petitioner but for that the petitioner has rendered some explanation that it was A.S.I. Janeshwar Ram, according to learned counsel for the petitioner, who had handed over the same to the petitioner.

Let the petitioner Ranjit Kumar Sinha be released on his furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bhagalpur, in Kotwali(Adampur) P.S.Case No. 601 of 2008.
